Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in paper filed in December 2004.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993), In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985), In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982), In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970), and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 844 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1, 2, 27, 28, and 45 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 2, 16, and 17 of copending Application No. 10/884,015. The present claims are read on by the copending claims such that the present claims are considered to be clearly obvious in view thereof. In other words, the present claims could be said to be "anticipated" or rendered clearly "obvious" by the subject matter set forth in the copending claims, and therefore, a double patenting rejection is deemed appropriate.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-4, 6-13, 17, 20, 24, 27, 28, 45-49, and 51-56 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The new limitation "interior plane" is not understood because a plane is an infinite area. For this reason, it is not clear how to interpret the claim language, but the Examiner will interpret the claim language as an area within any portion of the outer periphery of the ring.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mahmoodi (WO 98/18411). Mahmoodi anticipates the claim language where the ring as claimed is met by the ring of Mahmoodi, the restraining structure as claimed is part of the ring and is made up of the connecting struts (14, 16)., see the front page of the patent and its English language abstract.

Claims 1-3, 6-12, 27, 45-49, and 53 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gabbay (WO 01/89418). Gabbay anticipates the claim language where the buttress (20) extends over at least a portion of the interior of the ring; see Figures 1, 4, 11, and 12 as well as page 9, line 26 et seq.

Claims 1-4, 9-13, 17, 20, 24, 27, 28, 45, 46, 51, 52, and 57 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bessler where the restraining member as claimed is met by the template (206) of Bessler that reads on the claimed device', see Figures 9A and 9B as well as page 14.

Regarding claim 20, "substantially" is construed as being broad such that the arms of template (206) reads thereon.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 55 and 56 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bessler et al (WO 01/47438) in view of Solem et al (US 6,210,432). Bessler et al meets the claim language but discloses that the device can be made of plastic or metal without specifying what types of metals can be used. However, Solem teaches that it was known to make similar annuloplasty rings out of Nitinol, see column 3, lines 37-47. Nitinol is a type of nickel-titanium alloy. Therefore, it is the Examiner's position that it would have been prima facie obvious to make the components of Bessler out of Nitinol for the same reasons that Solem does the same and because Nitinol is known to be a biocompatible and sufficiently strong material for heart valve repair as implicitly taught by Bessler.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed April 14, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to the argument that none of the applied references have restraining structures "extending generally within at least a portion of the interior plane defined by the ring", the Examiner asserts that the language is fully met by all three patents. The area defined by the ring is not clear, but given its broadest reasonable interpretation, it requires that restraining structures be within the outer periphery of the ring structure. Even Bessler, where most of the buttress is outside the area within the ring, there is a portion of the buttress that extends through the area within the ring; see Figure 4. For this reason, the claim language is read on by Bessler.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Applicant should specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure, including the claims (MPEP 714.02 and 2163.06). Due to the procedure outlined in MPEP 2163.06 for interpreting claims, it is noted that other art may be applicable under 35 USC 102 or 35 USC 103(a) once the aforementioned issue(s) is/are addressed.

Applicant is respectfully requested to provide a list of all copending applications that set forth similar subject matter to the present claims. A copy of such copending claims is respectfully requested in response to this Office action if the application is not stored in image format (i.e. the IFW system) or published.
